ART BRENDER
Law Offices of Art Brender

Through volunteer work and community involvement (Humane Society of North Texas; West Meadowbrook Neighborhood Association; Tarrant County Bar Association; St. Rita's Catholic Church), Art Brender has tried to give back to the society that has given him "so much opportunity."

Brender graduated from the University of Texas (BA 1968, J.D. 1973). He is Board Certified, Texas Board of Legal Specialization in Personal Injury Law and Criminal Law, and licensed in all Federal Courts in Texas, the Fifth and Ninth Circuits and the United States Supreme Court. Brender has tried and won two cases before the Supreme Court, Watson v. Fort Worth Bank & Trust, 487 U.S. 977, 101 L.Ed.2d 827, 108 S.Ct. 2777 (1988), and Trevino v. Texas, 503 U.S. 562, 112 S.Ct. 1547, 118 L.Ed.2d 193 (1992).

He has been married to Lynda Brender since 1968, and they are the parents of three – Sarah, a paralegal and mother of Molly (age 2 1/2) and Ellie (1); Erin, a physician pursuing a residency in internal medicine at the University of Florida; and John, a law student at Baylor University.

Brender received the NAACP Outstanding Service in the Field of Civil Rights Award and the Texas Woman's Political Caucus "Good Guy Award." He is a member of Judge Eldon Mahon's Inns of Court, of the Texas State Bar on Pattern Jury Charge Committee and various Bar Association Committees.
